

Rigorous Fixed Point Enclosures and their Application to Beam Transfer Maps

Alexander Wittig

Michigan State University, USA

In this talk we will describe a method to compute rigorous enclosures of all fixed or periodic points of a given order in a map based on Taylor Model methods. We will then apply the algorithm to a real world transfer map of the Tevatron accelerator to find resonances in the transfer map.